

EDUCATION PROGRAMS FOR JANUARY 2012

Arts:21 Power

January 16 / 6:30 pm / CLA Auditorium

Screenings continue of the ground breaking PBS series Arts:21. The season three opener explores the theme of power in contemporary art. Free Admission with complimentary wine.

Dance Theatre of Harlem Lecture Demonstration Performance for Schools

January 17 / 11 am / Saenger Theatre

Admission $5

Pre-K Studio Project: 2-D Jazz

January 18 / 10 am / CLA Classroom

Children ages 3-5 and their parents will explore the world of jazz music while drawing and painting. Free admission.

Studio 301 Ceramics Open Studio

January 18 / 12 pm / CLA Clerestory Studio

Current Studio 301 clay students can continue work on projects during this 4 hour uninstruced open studio session. This open studio runs for 8 weeks every Wednesday and the cost is $5 per week.

Studio 301 Wheel Throwing and Handbuilt Ceramics

January 18 / 5:30 pm / CLA Clerestory Studio

Led by instructor Maria Spies, this is a beginning to intermediate class exploring clay as a medium for the expression of 3-dimensional forms. Students will be introduced to wheel throwing and handbuilding techniques. The class runs for 8 weeks every Wednesday and the cost is $170 for CLA members / $195 for non members.

Kids Studio Project:- Jazzy Sidewalks

January 21 / 10 am / Space 301

Children ages 6 - 12 will explore the world of American Jazz music captured by Herman Leonard and street art on this fun morning of jazz inspired sidewalk painting with chalk. Multiple instructors will be on hand for this activity. Free admission.

Arts:21 Memory

January 23 / 6:30 pm / CLA Auditorium

The CLA continues screening the ground breaking PBS series Arts:21. Season three, episode 2 explores the theme of memory in contemporary art. Free admission with complimentary wine.

City Scape Skyline Painting

January 24 / 11 am / CLA 3rd Floor Terrace

Create beautiful paintings that explore downtown Mobile's historic skyline in this moderated, one day session. Please bring necessary supplies. Easels provided if needed. Admission $15.

City Scape Skyline Painting at Night

January 24 / 6 pm / CLA 3rd Floor Terrace

Create beautiful paintings that explore downtown Mobile's historic skyline after nightfall in this moderated, one day session. Please bring necessary supplies. Easels provided if needed. Admission $15.

Pre-K Studio Project: Music Maker

January 25 / 10 am / CLA Classroom

Children ages 3-5 and their parents will explore contemporary visual and performing arts in this exciting class by creating simple musical instruments while being exposed to child-friendly jazz music. Free admission.

Kids Studio Project: Jazzy Paintings

January 28 / 10 am / CLA Classroom

Children ages 6 - 12 will explore the world of American Jazz music captured by Herman Leonard while creating acrylic paintings inspired by jazz greats like Louis Armstrong and Ella Fitzgerald. Free admission.

Community Cinema Screening: Daisy Bates: First Lady of Little Rock

January 28 / 2 pm / CLA Auditorium

This documentary follows activist Daisy Bates's struggle to support the integration of African American students into white schools in the 1960's. Community Cinema is a nine month film series brought to Mobile in partnership with the CLA, Mobile Arts Council, Mobile Museum of Art and the Mobile County Public School System. Free admission.

Arts:21 Play

January 30 / 6:30 pm/ CLA Auditorium

The CLA continues screening the ground breaking PBS series Arts:21. Season three, episode 3 explores the theme of play in contemporary art. Free Admission with complimentary wine.